

Characters Are Important Ingredients

Find the character each sentence describes.

Copy the symbol in the bowl in front of the sentence.

= Huey

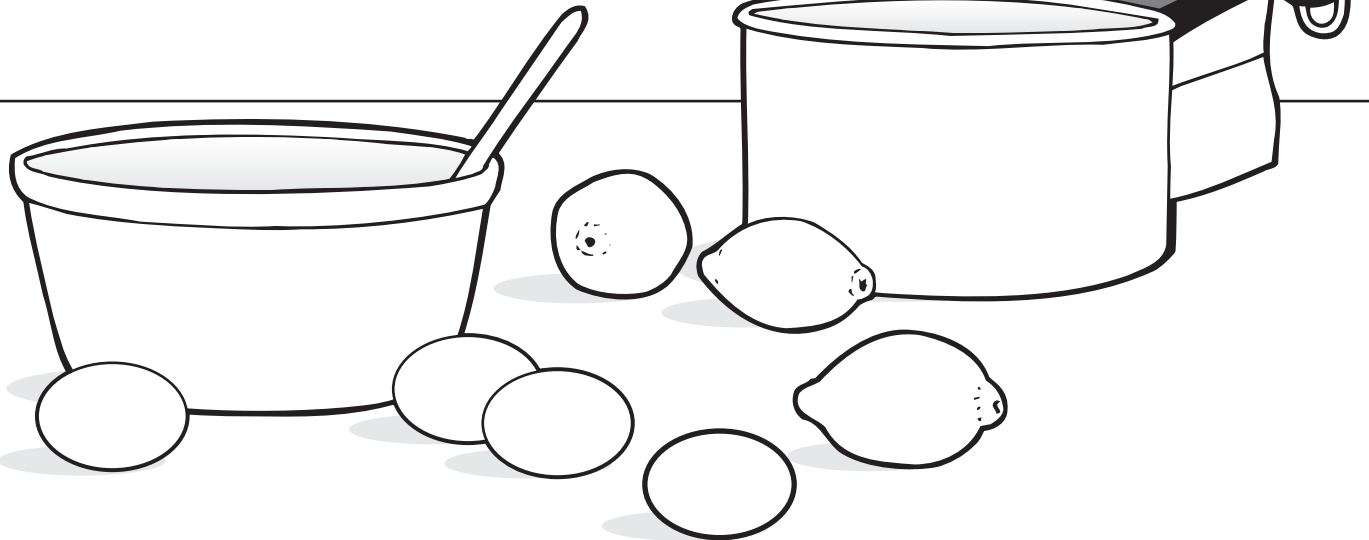

= Julian

= Father

-  1. He is the first to taste the pudding.
-  2. He whips eggs until his arm hurts.
-  3. His eyes look like black lightning.
-  4. He lies to his father about the pudding.
-  5. When he thinks, you can almost see his thoughts.
-  6. His voice booms through the cracks in the house.
-  7. He tries to fool Huey when Huey doesn't know what catalogs are.
-  8. He cries because cats don't come out of the catalog.
-  9. He says that catalog cats are invisible.
-  10. He dreams about catalog cats.
-  11. He wants to leave when the catalog arrives.
-  12. He writes a request for catalog cats.

Bonus Box: Choose one character from above. On the back of this sheet, write a description of the character.

How to Use This Unit

Pages 19–24

The activities in this unit are designed to accompany The Stories Julian Tells written by Ann Cameron and illustrated by Ann Strugnell.

How to Use Page 19

“Characters Are Important Ingredients”

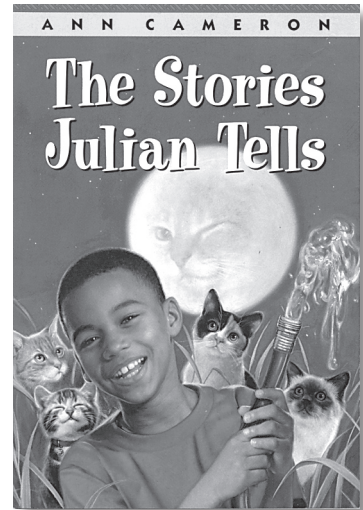

Use this activity after reading the first two stories.

Book Summary

The Stories Julian Tells

by Ann Cameron

Julian loves to stir up adventures, and his little brother, Huey, usually goes along for the ride. Whether he is growing corn that is higher than a house or showing his classmates his cave-boy teeth, Julian is always sure to have a good story to share.

Answer Key

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.
- 11.
- 12.

Bonus Box: Answers will vary.

